in the 2009 elections the european centre right emerged victorious thus affirming its political domination in contemporary european politics the aim of this book is not to provide an analysis of the factors that contributed to the epp s political prevalence instead it is to help this large political family maintain its vigour of political thought and policy prescriptions the book provides a forum for prominent centre right thinkers to debate the major european problems of our times with particular emphasis on the management of the financial crisis and the next institutional steps regarding the european integration project it assembles the views of politicians academics and think tank fellows from different national backgrounds and dissimilar ideological perspectives who unfold their vision for europe s future overall the book attempts to both highlight and stimulate the centre right contribution to the discussion of europe s main contemporary challenges
