the classic story of social justice and outrageous cunning robin hood champion of the poor and oppressed stands against the cruel power of prince john and the brutal sheriff of nottingham taking refuge in the vast sherwood forest with his band of men he remains determined to outwit his enemies brilliantly introduced by bestselling author john boyne recounts the life and adventures of robin hood who with his band of followers lived in sherwood forest as an outlaw dedicated to fighting tyranny recounts the legend of robin hood who plundered the king s purse and poached his deer and whose generosity endeared him to the poor ballads legends and poems about the legendary robin hood have been around since the middle ages in the merry adventures of robin hood the bandit and his merry men ramble through the sherwood forest in england stealing from those who are weighed down with too much gold and giving the plunder to villagers who don t have enough money to feed themselves thanks to this set of stories robin hood became commonly known as a hero and friend to those in need american author and illustrator howard pyle created this compilation of legends for children first published in the united states in 1883

in merry england in the time of old when good king henry the second ruled the land there lived within the green glades of sherwood forest near nottingham town a famous outlaw whose name was robin hood no archer ever lived that could speed a gray goose shaft with such skill and cunning as his nor were there ever such yeomen as the sevenscore merry men that roamed with him through the greenwood shades right merrily they dwelled within the depths of sherwood forest suffering neither care nor want but passing the time in merry games of archery or bouts of cudgel play living upon the king s venison washed down with draughts of ale of october brewing not only robin himself but all the band were outlaws and dwelled apart from other men yet they were beloved by the country people round about for no one ever came to jolly robin for help in time of need and went away again with an empty fist and now i will tell how it came about that robin hood fell afoul of the law when robin was a youth of eighteen stout of sinew and bold of heart the sheriff of nottingham proclaimed a shooting match and offered a prize of a butt of ale to whosoever should shoot the best shaft in nottinghamshire now quoth robin will i go too for fain would i draw a string for the bright eyes of my lass and a butt of good october brewing so up he got and took his good stout yew bow and a score or more of broad clothyard arrows and started off from locksley town through sherwood forest to nottingham it was at the dawn of day in the merry maytime when hedgerows are green and flowers bedeck the meadows daisies pied and yellow cuckoo buds and fair primroses all along the briery hedges when apple buds blossom and sweet birds sing the lark at dawn of day the throstle cock and cuckoo when lads and lasses look upon each other with sweet thoughts when busy housewives spread their linen to bleach upon the bright green grass sweet was the greenwood as he walked along its paths and bright the green and rustling leaves amid which the little birds sang with might and main and blithely robin whistled as he trudged along thinking of maid marian and her bright eyes for at such times a youth's thoughts are wont to turn pleasantly upon the lass that he loves the best as thus he walked along with a brisk step and a merry whistle he came suddenly upon some foresters seated beneath a great oak tree fifteen there were in all making themselves merry with feasting and drinking as they sat around a huge pasty to which each man helped himself thrusting his hands into the pie and washing down that which they ate with great horns of ale which they drew all foaming from a barrel that stood nigh each man was clad in lincoln green and a fine show they made seated upon the sward beneath that fair spreading tree then one of them with his mouth full called out to robin hulloa where goest thou little lad with thy one penny bow and thy farthing shafts then robin grew angry for no stripling likes to be taunted with his green years now quoth he my bow and eke mine arrows are as good as shine and moreover i go to the shooting match at nottingham town which same has been proclaimed by our good sheriff of nottinghamshire there i will shoot with other stout yeomen for a prize has been offered of a fine butt of ale then one who held a horn of ale in his hand said ho listen to the lad why boy thy mother's milk is yet scarce dry upon thy lips and yet thou pratest of standing up with good stout men at nottingham butts thou who art scarce able to draw one string of a two stone bow i'll hold the best of you twenty marks quoth bold robin that i hit the clout at threescore rods by the good help of our lady fair at this all laughed aloud and one said well boasted thou fair infant well boasted and well thou knowest that no target is nigh to make good thy wager pyle synthesized many traditional robin hood legends and ballads in this work while toning them down to make them suitable for children for instance he modified the ballad robin hood's progress to nottingham changing it from robin's killing fourteen foresters for not honoring a bet to robin's defending himself against a band of armed robbers pyle has robin kill only one man who shoots at him first tales in which robin steals all that an ambushed traveler carried such as robin hood and the bishop of hereford are changed so that the victim keeps a third and another third is dedicated to the poor a comedy play robin with the help of a merry man wannabe simply known as the town's guy turns this once simple legend into a hysterical trip through sherwood forest with surprises at every turn our charming but egotistical hero leads his band of familiar wood dwellers as they battle the delectably evil prince john and his haughty henchman the sheriff of nottingham robin's one and only love the lady marian remains true to her champion as she assists his crusade by wishing the prince and sheriff a rash of various skin afflictions incredibly our model good guy robin discovers that even heroes have a few important life lessons to learn
